

The water heater and furnace were in the same closet. The louver doors did not allow for enough combustion air. This is the cause of the brown heat marks on the water heater. The owners also had carpet and Christmas wrapping paper stored in the same closet. Notice the char mark on the carpet. They are very lucky a fire did not occur.